

Art Shows in the Feed Loft @ the CANTERBURY COUNTRY STORE

Thank you for wanting to have your work in The History of the Canterbury Country Store show at our community art gallery! At the close of our show, the work will also move to the Canterbury Historical Society's Elkins Memorial Building in Canterbury for the duration of the summer for their show.

To enter this show, you must complete the following steps. Entries that are late are always considered but most of the time they will be hung at a later date after the show has opened.

1. Fill out the entry form on the next page.
2. Email that form PLUS photos of what you want to enter by Sunday, May 12.
jane@CanterburyCountryStore.com
3. OR bring in the filled out form with photos to the store. DO NOT BRING WORK IN AT THIS POINT.
4. Wait to hear back from Jane by email if all of your work was accepted. Sometimes we do not have enough space for everything or the items may not fit the theme of the show.
5. After you have heard which of your work is accepted, bring it in Wednesday, May 15 - with the drop off sheet - during store hours 7am-6pm. Jane will have already made the title cards so we can hang your work immediately. The show is hung the day work is dropped off.
  - Late delivery for accepted work means that your work will not be hung immediately but at a later date when space is created for it.
  - Late entries—if accepted—will not have the title cards yet so their hanging will be delayed also.
  - If you are not available to drop off on May 15 contact Jane to make arrangements for an alternative day/time.
6. We encourage you to come anytime during this show to linger around your work to answer questions and meet viewers. Due to our tight space, a reception will not be held.
7. Pick up any work that has not sold that you need back on Monday, July 1 or by special app't. ALTERNATIVELY, if you wish to have your work shown in the summer-long show at Canterbury Historical Society's building, please email them for further instructions.

We are very pleased that you are interested in sharing your work at the store!
